

PUBLIC SCHOOL EXEMPTIONS

It is the policy of the Rapid City School District to follow state statutes in cooperating with parents who wish to have their children receive education which is an alternative to education in an accredited public or private school or whose children enter the public schools after having attended an alternative education program.

The superintendent of schools is charged with the responsibility of developing the necessary procedures to process alternative educational requests, monitor alternative educational progress, and to coordinate those instances of student transfer from alternative educational programs to the local public schools.
